

Northern Frontier Core Training Program Application 2010

You have in front of you an application for camp Northern Frontier's "Core Training" Program. You will find these forms easy to complete, but I want to bring a few items to your attention. Please read this cover letter carefully.

Application: Please fill out all sections on both pages and be sure to sign the application. If you are a minor (17 years of age or under) please have your parent or guardian sign the application with you. Both pages of the application must be returned to the Battalion Program Director – Chris Studley whose address is printed on it.

Please read the two paragraphs under "Commitment" carefully and completely. If anything in them troubles you, please give me a call.

Statement of Faith and Statement of Christian Living: Read each of these documents carefully. On the application form, please indicate that you have read them and are in full agreement with them. If anything in them troubles you, please give me a call.

Reference Forms: In a stamped envelope addressed to the Battalion Program Director, please give the first letter of reference to your pastor to fill out and return. You will find the label "Pastor's Reference" near the top.

In additional stamped envelopes addressed to the Battalion Program Director, please give the other two letters of reference to mature, Christian adults (over 21 years of age) who know you fairly well. Family members are not included. It is your responsibility to make sure that those to whom you have given the references fill them out and mail them to the Battalion Program Director in a timely manner.

Process: We must receive your full application and references before we can officially accept you to the "Core Training Program". It is important that your references come from people who know you personally. Once we have your application and references we will notify you as to whether or not you have been accepted to the program. There are only six available spots per session so please sign up early. I am going to fill up the first session first, then once that is in place I will work on the second session. While working on the first session I will keep track of the order I received completed applications for the second session of the "Core Training" program. If you have not heard from us in a reasonable time, there is a very good chance that your application is incomplete. It is your responsibility to see that your application is completed in a timely manner. If you have any questions about the status of your application, or problems with the application or application process, please feel free to contact Chris Studley by e-mail or telephone.

This year "Core Training" dates are from July 3rd through July 17th (weeks 1 and 2) and once that is full then we will work on July 24th through August 7th (weeks 4 and 5). We will begin making "Core Training" decisions starting the first of February. I urge you to begin the application process for either session without delay. You will hear from Chris Studley after he receives your entire application and all references.

God is putting together a team to glorify Himself at Northern Frontier in 2010 and future years. I have been praying for that team for some time and ask you to join me in that prayer. If it is God who does the work in people's hearts, then our first priority must be to ask Him to work. After that, we surrender ourselves to Him in His holy labor. What a privilege!

Serving Christ with you,

Northern Frontier Standard of Christian Living

Members of the Board of Trustees and all Staff members shall subscribe to the following Standard of Christian Living.

The life of the trustees and staff should be positive. A hesitant, uncertain Christian testimony will greatly weaken the effectiveness of the Gospel appeal to boys. They should be certain of their relationship to Christ and joyful in it. Their lives should be without question. All leaders of boys need to be reminded, "Don't look now, but you're being followed!" The serious responsibility of shaping young lives demands high standards of personal conduct. Christian leaders cannot be too careful. Their personal habits must be such that the boys who listen to them at Northern Frontier in the summer can observe them at any other time without losing respect for their testimony.

There is no question about the teaching of the Scriptures concerning standards of honesty, self-control, humility and cleanness of speech and thought. However, there are certain practical problems of conduct, which sometimes cause confusion and disagreement among Christians. Such matters cannot be settled by superimposing commandments that go beyond the Scriptures, but they must be determined by the individual's communion with the Lord based on the Word of God and the witness of the Holy Spirit. God has not given a "thou shalt not" in regard to some things, because Christians are greatly strengthened as they seek an understanding of the will of God for themselves. When Christians face squarely the matter of their daily personal conduct, they have an obligation to obey those standards, which they believe God has given them. The Word of God clearly teaches; "Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins." (James 4:17) All who are sincerely determined to live according to God's standards will find positive guidance from Romans 12 and 13.

Christian leaders have the additional responsibility of maintaining those habits of conduct, which young fellows can safely follow. It is impossible for them to have one way of living before boys and another when they are presumably away from them. In practice, leaders should weigh their personal habits in the light of whether or not they would be satisfied for boys to do the same. Boys can hardly be expected to achieve a higher standard of Christian conduct than their leaders.

In view of the great responsibility of boys' leadership, Northern Frontier requires its staff members to take a decisive stand on habit-forming practices generally acknowledged to be detrimental. The enslaving tendencies of such habits are clear justification for this stand, especially where the training of youth is involved. Just as men may separate and condition themselves for a particular responsibility or occupation, so leadership in Christian boys' work calls for abstinence from such practices.

The Lord's service requires clean vessels, and He has promised the grace necessary to be such. The Savior calls for men who can stand before boys with a positive, clear-cut Christian testimony and in turn have the joy of watching young men follow them into a similar life.

Standard of Faith

Members of the Board of Trustees and all Staff shall subscribe to the following Standard of Faith:

1. We believe in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as verbally inspired of God and inerrant in the original writing, and that they are of supreme and final authority in faith and life.
2. We believe in one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that Jesus Christ was begotten by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man.
4. We believe that man was created in the image of God; that he sinned, and thereby incurred, not only physical death, but also spiritual death that is separation from God; and that all human beings are born with a sinful nature, and in the case of those who reach moral responsibility, become sinners in thought, word and deed.
5. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, as a representative and substitutionary sacrifice; and that all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood.
6. We believe in the resurrection of the crucified body of our Lord, in His ascension into Heaven, and in His present life there for us, as High Priest and Advocate.
7. We believe in the personal and imminent return of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
8. We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ are born again of the Holy Spirit, and thereby become children of God.
9. We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting punishment of the lost.
