

Northern Frontier Rock Climbing Trip

You've made a good choice in deciding to come to Northern Frontier this Summer. We are looking forward to your arrival and have been making plans for what we hope is going to be a great time for you.

Rock climbing has been a favorite craft of Battalion campers for years. As a participant in our Rock Climbing Trip, you have the opportunity to become expert in basic rock climbing skills as you experience a week of fun and challenge in the Adirondack Mountains. The schedule for the Rock Climbing Trip will be flexible primarily due to weather. During the course of the week you will use Northern Frontier's Rock Climbing Wall, climb at areas close to camp, and then move on to greater challenges at some of the well-known rock faces in the Adirondacks.

Your group will have two counselors and up to eight campers. At least one of your counselors will be certified in First Aid and CPR.

A daily Bible exploration and informal sharing each evening around the campfire will be highlights of the day as you discover how the Bible speaks to your needs.

In addition to the articles you would normally bring to camp, you will want to bring a pair of rock climbing shoes if you have them. If not, bring a good pair of running sneakers. You may bring whatever rock climbing equipment you have (harness, chalk bag, etc. - no ropes please), but the use of your personal equipment will be at the Rock Climbing Instructor's discretion. Northern Frontier's equipment has been purchased and inspected with safety as the primary concern. If the instructor shows any hesitation or has any question, Northern Frontier's equipment will be used. You may want to bring a camera to capture some of the beauty, challenge and fun you will experience through the week. If you'd like to submit your pictures for possible inclusion in Northern Frontier's brochure or newsletters, stop in at the Camp Office after the trip.

If you have any questions regarding this trip please feel free to call. Should you have to cancel, please notify us as soon as possible so someone else can have the opportunity to participate in this exciting adventure.

Our prayer is that this week will bring into your life not only fun, challenge and excitement, but also new friends and significant growth in your relationship with Jesus Christ. We look forward to seeing you!
